PRESS BIO

Share an evening with Troy Hammond, and he'll teach you to look at the world in a whole new way... with your eyes closed!

As the country's only touring blind comedian, Troy brings a vision of the world to his audience that is sometimes dark, yet always enlightened. He applies his unique perspective to everything from religion to politics, with observations that are both fresh and thought-provoking.

Troy has shared the stage with celebrities such as Dave Chappelle and Drew Carey, has appeared on Good Morning, America!, and in both Rolling Stone and Variety magazines. His talents aren't limited to stand-up, as he voiced an animated character on a nationally syndicated children's show, and has performed onstage with surf legends Jan and Dean.

So open your mind, close your eyes, and buckle up... it's going to be a bumpy ride!
